

NASSER ALI KHAN, PhD

Director

Institute of Management Sciences, Peshawar

Prof. Dr. Nasser Ali Khan is the Director of Institute of Management Sciences (IMSciences) Peshawar since October 8, 2003. He has done MS from Vrije Universiteit, Brussels, Belgium. Later he has done Ph.D. (Economics) from University of Peshawar in 2003. His professional career includes Assistant Professorship at Department of Economics University of Peshawar from 1995-2003, Assistant Director/Economic Research, Agricultural Development Bank of Pakistan from 1986-87 and Staff Economist, Centre for Applied Economic Studies, University of Peshawar from 1984-86.

He has membership of many national Committees including prestigious Panel of Economist, Planning Commission, Government of Pakistan. He has been appointed as Chairman for Committee for Development of Social Sciences and Humanities in Pakistan by Higher Education Commission, Islamabad.

He has been invited as guest speaker by Command and Staff College, Quetta, Pakistan, National Institute of Public Administration, Peshawar. He has also visited different cities in the US, and conducted discussions with high power intellectuals, academia, Private Sector Corporations and the US government officials on Trade Policy II. He has been assigned Honorary Citizenship of High Point, North Carolina, USA.

Till now, he has eighteen publications in reputed national and international journals and his major area of research is Economics and International Relations. He has attended various seminars, symposiums and conferences inside the country and abroad during his academic and professional career. He is also member of various national and international societies.