

Prof. Dr. Mohammad Zafar Iqbal Jadoon

Institute of Administrative Sciences
University of the Punjab
Lahore, Pakistan
Tel: 042-99231815
Mob: 0300-8421886

Dr. Mohammad Zafar Iqbal Jadoon is Professor of Administrative Sciences at University of the Punjab, Lahore, Pakistan. He has obtained MPA and Ph.D. degrees from University of Southern California, Los Angeles, USA. His area of expertise is public management and governance. He has published papers on management of SoEs, quality management in public sector, and HRM in public sector. He is currently conducting research on agencification in Pakistan.

Besides teaching and research, Dr. Jadoon has held key administrative and leadership positions in Punjab University and Pakistan's higher education sector. He has served as the founding Dean, Faculty of Economics & Management Sciences, University of the Punjab, Lahore for 3 years and Director, Institute of Administrative Sciences for over 10 years. He has also served as Registrar of Punjab University. He is convener of Public Administration/Management Curriculum Committee of Higher Education Commission. He is also a member of HEC's Committee for Development of Social Sciences and Humanities. He is a member of Bahauddin Zakariya University's Selection Board. He holds of Boards of Studies in Management Sciences of several public and private universities.

He has extensive international exposure. He has taught at several foreign universities including University of Southern California, University of Phoenix, University of Stirling and Herriot Watts University, Edinburgh. He has received special recognition by the Productivity Commission of the City of Los Angeles, California, USA on completion of several productivity projects.

He is a member of various national and international professional bodies such as American Society for Public Administration (ASPA), Academy of Management, British Academy of Management, Chartered Institute of Personnel Development (CIPD) and Governance Institutes Network International (GINI).